

24th June 2016 The Prehistoric Three

27/6/16

Three of us. We were the only ones left, the only ones to make it to the island. Luke, Harry and I were in our home, a meta-human prison, we were learning to use our powers to help other people. Suddenly, my vision started to go blurry, I felt sick and then passed out! When I woke up, I was in a different environment than usual. I was in an aluminium case with titanium straps. Luckily, I had powers. My power was 'laser vision' - I'm the only one in Metropolis to have it so, I'm pretty unique. I blasted the door down and to my amazement, we were on a desert island. I wasn't the only one, Harry and Luke were there as well. Result! I wouldn't be able to live without them. Luke has the power to summon do-dos and Harry can create wooden structures with his mind! So, we got to work making our house.

Once we finished the camp, we had cooked Kurantula (to be honest that's not what I'm used to eating). So I set off to find 'real' food, but I didn't get too far into the woods, because I overheard Harry and Luke saying ~~that~~ ^{they} "I wasn't tough enough for the job." So I ran to get some food to prove them wrong.

It didn't take long for me to run into trouble. I ran straight at a random arachnid waving my poison tipped stone axe above my head. I threw it as far as I could, but sadly it was more boomerang shaped than axe shaped and it hit my arm and poisoned my blood. I lay up against a boulder, called for help and lay there gazed.

Luckily, Harry came in with his reinforced wooden helicopter. As I climbed up the wobbly, not so sturdy rope ladder, Luke ran out the helicopter and summoned do-dos to put the arachnid out of its misery. Then we flew back home, whilst my arm was throbbing with blood.

When we got home we had the best arachnid legs for lunch. Two days later, I felt like I was being hit by a rhino, but when I woke up I wasn't at camp with Harry and Luke, I was in heaven! The angels told me I died of a heart attack and when my skin rotted away leeches sucked out all my blood. Well, after hearing all that, I decided to sit down and rest.
