The Haunted Spies

It was the day the moon fell. There were three of us. McKenna, Hetita and Sienna. We were the only ones left standing. The only ones to survive out of the agency. It was the day we moved into the new house: the oversized mansion (the creepy, haunted mansion). With enough room to fit a zoo in it. It was bigger than you could ever imagine!

Outside, I looked brave and fearless, inside I felt as tiny as a mouse. There was no one else to be seen! Then one day, there was someone outside our house, it was a little girl dressed in black. She was very small and had a black top hat on, she looked like an alien spy. But McKenna - one of the Jello agents standing - told me and Hetita to ignore her, she was one of us. Curiously, Hetita and I went to our secret hide-out in the basement / the agencies M.Q. Down there were gadgets, explosives and lots of cool stuff. Whenever there's a mystery, there's the spies - and their names are 'The Secrets' - and if there's 'The Secrets' there's got to be a problem. Then all of a sudden, they heard something!

There was something or someone upstairs. As quick as a flash, Hetita and I ran upstairs to find McKenna, but she had gone! All that was left of her was a few strands of hair and her phone. She had GONE!
But where! Suddenly, we heard another noise. LALALALALALAAH... HE HE HEEHEHE! It was the little girl with blonde hair, who was dressed in black...

Apprehensively, Letita and I (Sienna) followed the little girl through to the foyer. Scared, frightened, disturbed, as we walked into the foyer we saw bloody hand prints on the wall, but little did we know that Mekenna's body was lying under the table. "Aaaaaaaahh!" Letita and I screamed we couldn't handle it any longer we had to get working on the mission. Why did the little girl kill Mekenna? We started to work in Head Quarters, when suddenly there was a knock on the front door. knock... knock... knock went the front door... Who could it be?

Anxiously, Letita hid behind me and we both walked upstairs to the door and looked through the old, brown peephole. There was no-one there! Gently, slowly, I opened the door and looked around. Still there was no-one there... Until La ha ha ha ha haah... ME HE HE we looked down there was the little girl in black looking up smiling at us. We had to run, but we had frozen with fear. Meanwhile the door started to shut; by the side of us was Mekenna, but in ghost form, she was speaking to us. What was she saying? "Hi girls why don't you join me? It's much more fun when you can walk through walls!" she encouraged. I had no longer felt Letita's hand on my shoulder, I turned, she had disappeared. I ran around everywhere, she had gone completely. But where could she have gone? Then I heard Mekenna again, she had Letita with her; they were playing catch with a tennis ball. "Hi Sienna, it's me Letita, Mekenna was right this is much more fun you really should join us," she said. Letita was talking to me, but how? The more I thought about it, the more I felt Saints like.

As quick as a flash, I fainted it was like falling asleep. I had dreamt about horrible things that could happen to the world, without the agency it was deathly. I had gone. I woke up in something like a white room, with clouds all around, then I saw Ketita and Mekenna, we were all together again. But sadly we were dead. No-one ever found out where we went, but it was best that way. Because before I left the world I had read a letter from the little girl in black it said about whoever moves into that house becomes haunted that is how I am not with you now!
